PUNCHARD HIGH

By GLADYS THOMSON

Classes Begin

Monday morning found some 730 odd students of the Punchard and Junior High Schools gathered in the auditorium for a combined assembly. Harold Howe II gave a short welcome address and followed it with an appropriate talk on the subject "Vacation Is Over." The assembly was adjourned and the students filed back to their home rooms to prepare for the first class of the school season.

Football Rally

A football rally will be held Friday evening at 7:30 behind the school at which Hal Wennik will be master of ceremonies. The band and the cheer leaders will also be there to pep things up and lead the snake dance.

This event will be a prelude to the Punchard - Chelmsford game here Saturday so come on out and support your team. You'll have fun doing it, too!

Notes

The Junior class has been selling plastic book covers with blue and gold Punchard insignias on the front during the past week. This project was started to raise money for the Junior class treasury.

Pictures will be taken of the Junior and Senior High School students September 25 and 26.

October 2 is the date set for the student council dance. This dance will be the first of the season so let's make it a good one.

Orders for last June's prom pictures are now being taken by Elinor Mondale and James Gemmel.

The first three school assemblies will be class meetings which will be held for the purpose of organizing class affairs.

The seniors had an assembly in the new Central elementary school auditorium Monday with Bernard Kellmurray, director of Guidance, in charge. Basic college information was the topic.

Weekday Religious School To Open

Next Monday the Weekday school of religious education sponsored by the Andover council of churches and St. Augustine's church will open for the 1952-1953 school year.

Letters have gone out to the parents of junior-high-school-age young people throughout the community explaining the plans. Forms were included on which parents may express their desire to have their children enrolled in the school.

Feeling that there is an obligation to provide adequate opportunity for religious instruction, to avoid what one religious leader has called the religious illiteracy of youth, a group spent a good deal of time and thought during the past summer on revision of courses, enlistment of skilled instructors, and improved organization.

The Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A., Harold Howe II, the Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, president of the council of churches and Miss Elizabeth Hopkins, chairman of the council's religious education committee and members of her committee led in the planning.

The courses offered will include Old Testament history (to the time of Solomon); The Prophets; and The World into Which Jesus Came.

Andover Men Object Of Sea Search

Two Andover men were the principals in an air and sea search conducted by the Coast Guard early last Thursday morning.

Dr. Joseph P. McEneaney, 87 Salem st. and Philip W. Blake, son of a prominent local physician were reported overdue in a 24-foot cabin cruiser on a fishing trip off Parker river.

While anxiety prevailed with friends and relatives of the pair, the two men went to sleep and spent a comfortable evening while their craft was stuck in the mud in the Parker river, at the junction of Ipswich and Plum Island.

High tide loosened the cruiser later on and they completed their trip to a safe mooring.

Salem Coast Guard Chief Richard Hale called off the search when notified that the Andover men had arrived safely on shore. A pea-soup fog had sealed off the cruiser from observation while it was stuck in the mud.

Commented Dr. McEneaney: "Best night's rest in a long time."

Eight To Pay Tax On Television Sets

About eight Andover residents will pay a tax on their television sets this year, it was estimated by Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the board of selectmen.

As of this year, the law allows a $5,000 exemption on household furnishings and personal effects. Previously the exemption was allowed only on such possessions in excess of $1,000. With the advent of the new legislation, most Andover residents are exempted out of this tax class.

However, this exemption does not apply unless a return of household furnishings and personal effects estimates are made to the town assessors on or before January 31 of each year.

And here's the rub: assessors have no authority to enter a home unless asked by the proprietor to ascertain the estimated value of such possessions. If an abatement is sought on the tax amount imposed by the assessors, then the assessors have the right to enter and estimate the value.

Records at the assessors office reveal that the following persons have been estimated to have household furnishings and personal effects in addition to the $5,000 exemption:

Cornelius and Muriel Wood, 276 North Main st., $5,575. Abigail F. Curran, 250 North Main st., $5,000. Margaret Curran, 250 North Main st. Maurice J. Curran Jr., South Main st., $1,500. Douglas Byers, off Phillips st., $1,000. Marjorie S. Hayes, off Phillips st., $1,000. Georgia R. Thompson, 23 School st., $1,500. Margaret G. Towle, Porter rd., $1,000.

Prison Sentence For Local Break

A Methuen couple arrested in connection with a break last June at the Howard Johnson restaurant on South Main street, was arraigned in superior court at Lawrence Monday.

After he entered a plea of guilty, John F. Hart, 30, was sentenced to state prison for not less than four years or not more than six years to be served concurrently on charges of breaking and entering and larceny in the nighttime and having burglarious tools in his possession. A charge of carrying a revolver without a permit was filed.

Zelma O. Hart, 50, his wife, had charges of breaking and entering and larceny in the nighttime and possession of burglarious tools filed so that she may return to California to live with her son and get the medical attention she needs for cancer.

Officer William F. Tammany testified that he and Officer Richard Caldwell were making a check at the restaurant about 1.50 a.m. June 25 when they saw a car parked near the building and a man running away. As they approached, the parked car started away. They chased the car and found Mrs. Hart in it.

A call was put in for additional help. State police and other officers responded and after a search Hart was found about 5 a.m. hiding in the woods. Entrance to the building had been gained by breaking the rear door and a safe that had been removed, was found intact on the rear steps.

Dist. Atty. Hugh A. Cregg, who prosecuted, recommended filing charges against the woman so that she could get medical treatment.

MINOR FIRES

Smoke issuing from smoldering rags on a grill is given as the cause of an alarm from box 13 in Elm square which brought the fire department to Verette's restaurant at 10 p.m. Saturday. The relief was sounded 20 minutes later.

At 1:45 p.m. Saturday the department extinguished a brush fire at Lowell Junction.

At 12.10 p.m. Monday, a still alarm summonsed Engine 3 to 5 Williams st., to extinguish a slight blaze that damaged the wiring in the auto of Robert Watters.

SURPRISE PARTY

All boys and girls who read ten books this summer, seven from special lists and three chosen at will, are reminded that their ticket of admission to the Surprise Party, Sept. 19th, Friday, at 3:45 p.m. is to be the "American Heritage" reading record booklet, properly checked and approved by Miss Lane before that date. Records must be checked no later than Thursday afternoon and all who have been taking part in this summer reading project are urged to come earlier if possible to be checked.

Truck Rams Auto On South Main St.

A parked automobile owned by Rita L. Cataldo of Lawrence, a waitress in a local restaurant, was badly damaged about 6.10 a.m. Tuesday when struck by a truck on Route 28 near West Knoll road. No injuries were reported.

According to the police, Miss Cataldo was operating on the easterly side of the road when she found her car had a flat tire. She parked it at the side of the street with the lights on and went for assistance when it was hit by a truck owned by Hemingway Bros. of New Bedford, and operated by Joseph R. Austin Jr. of Lawrence. The latter said oncoming lights blinded him at the time. It took two wreckers to pull the vehicles apart.

LITTLEST LISTENERS

This year all mothers of three, four and five year olds who plan to bring the little people to any of the Littlest Listeners groups, either in the main library in Andover or in Ballardvale branch library, are urged to call the library before the end of September. This will aid greatly in the plans which are being made by Miss Lane. The telephone number is Andover 314.

See Here, Mr. And Mrs. Citizen

See here, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen, before you send your blood pressure into dangerous altitudes in fits of rage at the conduct of your duly elected legislators to the Massachusetts General Court, climb down from your "Ivory Towers" and take stock of your own part in this governmental "mess".

"The price of liberty is eternal vigilance". That was true in the infant stages of this constitutional government. It is even more true today in a nation which has expanded and prospered far beyond the fondest hopes of its founders. Not only must America be vigilant against the threat of foreign attack, but it must be equally watchful against decay from within. Our armed forces have always risen to the occasion and liquidated those who challenged our military might. America's "home-front" troops have left much to be wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Citizen, you are the "home-front" troops. You have the mightiest weapon at your disposal ever conceived. The atom bomb is but a toy in comparison to it. When properly used it can reduce Presidents to "has beens". It alters national and international policy. It is the strength of 150-million persons welded into one force. It is your sacred possession, the ballot, the right to vote.

You have abused this privilege, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen. You have either stayed away from the polls or you have cast your ballots with indifference in too many instances.

And now, you complain of the course of action taken by many of your public officials. You placed these officials in power. Too often, you were disinterested in what qualifications they possessed before taking office and what program they followed after assuming office. Political office holders are only as good as the standards which are demanded by those who elect them.

Let's bury the "tear bag". Let's assume a good part of the blame ourselves, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen, for the unsavory conditions at state and national level. The present deplorable situation has been made possible, largely, because you were absent from the roll call of public interest.

Government (local, state and national) is big business. You are the owners and operators of this business. If it fails, do not blame the men who are employed by you to work at its operation, alone. Blame yourself for having been a poor employer, who managed affairs in a "Let-George-Do-It" attitude.

But never forget, that if this business of government fails (American Democratic government) all other private businesses will change ownership also and people, who now have no time for political matters, will discover that politics and business have an important common denominator.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — September 1902

Public schools open with increased attendance. New regime at Pynchard. No longer is it Pynchard Free school but now it is Pynchard high school, supported in part by the Pynchard fund and in part by the town. Has 131 pupils. Sessions 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Much interest shown in proposed Lawrence-Lowell boulevard on south side of river. Many Andover citizens indorse movement at hearing before county commissioners held at Lawrence court house.

Electric car being used as freight car jumps rails at corner of Main street and Porter road, strikes wagon, kills horse, injures the driver, Sam Black of Lawrence, and finally brings up against a tree.

Crushed stone has been spread on portions of Main street near the square.

About 100 parishioners of the Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Smith of Ballardvale tender them a surprise party and reception in the church vestry upon their return from their vacation.

Cow on rails of the new Lawrence-Middleton electric line struck by electric carrying 60 passengers. Car derailed but most of the passengers escape serious injury. The cow? — hamburger.

25 Years Ago — September 1927

St. Augustine's has registration of 266.

Hearing held before county commissioners on petition of selectmen ordering a reconstruction and widening of bridge over railroad tracks on North Main st. Improvement is part of town plan for widening North Main st.

Program of water sport draws large gathering to Pomp's for the grand finale of the season. Stunts by youngsters draw loud applause.

They Went To College, Havemann.

This is a fascinating study of the college graduate in America made to evaluate what his college training has done for him. Over 6 million graduates of 1,037 American colleges have supplied answers to such questions as "What is your feeling about politics? Marriage? Religion? How much do you earn?"

Lighting And Lamp Design, Cox

Ann and Warren Cox found that in order to make lamps professionally they had to know illumination principles, color, painting, antiques, styles of decoration, theories of design, mechanical drawing and crafts. This is amazingly interesting for any reader, and gives fine points about lighting for homes, offices, churches, shops, factories, museums, etc.

Film And Education, Elliott

A survey of the present and possible use of the 16 mm. educational motion picture in our modern society, written by 37 writers, each discussing a phase of use with which he is most familiar. "Educational" is used here to mean any and all uses of the motion picture where it is intended to inform, orient or motivate its audience to some useful end.

The Life Of Billy Yank, Wiley

Conscious that most history emphasizes the campaigns and generals, Bell I. Wiley made a study of the common soldiers, the "little man himself who did the fighting." He went to printed writings and unpublished letters and diaries for his material. His book should correct false impressions of both North and South about the Yankee soldier.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH

INFLAMED GUMS-

Each tooth is surrounded by a collar of gingival tissue which, in the healthy mouths of children and young adults, is firm and pink and fits snugly. With middle age, however, the tissue usually draws back. In these spaces, food particles and tartar can lodge and eventually irritate the gums so that they become inflamed and bleed easily.

This condition is known as gingivitis. It can occur even in young people if the tartar constantly forming on the teeth becomes so heavy at the gum line as to irritate the tissue. Usually the inflammation quickly disappears once the dentist removes the source of irritation.

To prevent gingivitis, brush your teeth and gums thoroughly, have the dentist examine your teeth frequently, and eat a good general diet so that the gingival tissues will be properly nourished and stimulated.

Social Security
Checks Going Up

Social security checks mailed Sept. 3 to about 8,000 old age and survivors insurance beneficiaries in the Lawrence field office area were the last under the old rates of payment, according to Miss Vose, manager of the Lawrence social security office. Payments due to the same people early in October will amount to about $310,000.

As a result of changes made in the social security law in July, nearly everyone receiving old-age and survivors insurance benefits will get higher payments. Most retired workers will receive increases ranging from $5 to $8.60.
Increases for dependents and survivors will be less than those for retired workers. In most cases, these increases will be about $2 to $5.

"For example, she says, 'a retired insured worker whose August payment mailed this week is $40, based on earnings received since 1936, will get a September payment of $45; a worker who got $68.50 in the current check will get $77.10 the first week in October.'"

It will not be necessary for persons now getting old-age and survivors insurance payments to call or come to the Lawrence social security office to get the increases. The checks they will receive early in October will automatically carry the increased amounts.

Veterans May Pay
VA For Insurance

Veterans now may make their checks or money orders for government life insurance premiums payable to "Veterans Administration", VA announced today.

Heretofore, checks and money orders had to be made payable to "The Treasurer of the United States". As a result, many premium payments were sent to the treasury department rather than to the VA district or central office handling the insurance account.

Veterans are advised by the VA not to send cash through the mails but to use checks or postal money orders. Cancelled checks or money order stubs will serve as premium receipts.

From now on there will be no official receipt returned to the insured each month.

Returning veterans of the Korean campaign are reminded that they must apply for the continuance of the gratuitous national service life insurance, issued while in service at no cost, within 90 days after discharge.

NEED OF MORE SCHOOLS SEEN

Ballardvale, a new one-unit school building in the Carmel woods section, and the future growth and development of the town especially in the West Andover section.

The subject was brought up by Supt. Kenneth L. Sherman who in view of the tremendous growth of the school population, which is now far ahead of the projected population in the survey made a few years ago, suggested that the committee ask for a new building committee and the sum of $1500 to be used at its disposal to make a study of the problem and present plans to provide for the situation.

Figures were presented to show that the school attendance now at 2045 would soon be about 2400 and in about 10 years time the senior and junior high schools with a present total of 720 would be in the vicinity of 1500.

Headmaster Harold Howe II spoke on this subject and said the present senior and junior high school buildings were now being operated at the capacity of their efficiency and soon would have about 800 pupils.

It was brought out that the present sixth grade, which will enter the junior high school next year, will be the last of the small classes and that afterward the classes entering junior high would be very much larger.

All members were present when the minutes of the last meeting, that of June 3, were read by Secretary Doherty and approved.

It was voted to send a letter of appreciation to the janitors for their effective work in getting the two new buildings ready for the opening day.

When Supt. Sherman reported that a new janitor would be needed at the Central school Nov. 15 for the midnight to morning shift the committee voted to have him hire a janitor for this shift.

On motion of Mr. Doherty seconded by Miss Anna M. Greeley it was voted to elect Dr. Frank E. Himmer as school dentist for the period of one year. He succeeds the late Dr. Malcolm B. McTernan, a former member of the school board.

It was announced that Sunday, Oct. 5 was set as the date for open house at the new Central school.

Announcement of a reading conference at Poland Springs, Me., Oct. 2, 3 and 4 was also made. Supt. Sherman, Miss Miriam Hopkins, remedial reading teacher, and Miss Luella Dunning of the Panchard English department plan to go.

Salary schedules were discussed but no action taken. The next meeting will be Oct. 7.
